To the People of the United States.

The People of the United States, without regard to past political differences or dissensions, who are opposed to the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, to the policy of the present administration to the extension of Slavery in the Territories, in view of the remonstrance of Kansas as a free State, and of rescinding the action of the Federal Government to the exclusive of Washington and Jefferson, are invited by the National Committee, appointed by the Patriotic Convention of the 23d of February, 1856, to send to each State three Delegates from every Congressional District, and six Delegates at large, to meet in PHILADELPHIA, ON THE SEVENTEENTH DAY OF JUNE NEXT, for the purpose of recommending candidates to be supported for the office of President and Vice President of the United States.

WASHINGTON, March 29, 1856. National Committee.
The National Committee, in a circular further say:

We direct your attention to the call, which has preceded this paper. It is not only to recommend to the people the immediate selection of delegates from the several States, equal in number, to three times the Representation in Congress, to which each State is entitled to represent in the 17th of June, at Philadelphia, to present such individuals as they may think best suited to uphold the principles which they are devoted to candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency, but also to invite the members of all parties, who feel it to be the dominant issue, which should control the election, to meet at the same time and place, to confer with the convention as to the best course to carry their common wishes with success.

Mass State Convention.

We, the undersigned, recommend the holding of a Mass State Convention, at Madison, on Wednesday, the 4th day of June, 1856, for the purpose of appointing six delegates to large and three delegates from each Congressional District, to represent the Republicans of Wisconsin in the National Republican Convention to be held at Philadelphia on the 17th day of June next, to nominate candidates for President and Vice-President to organize the Republican party of the State. And all persons are cordially invited to attend and take part in the proceedings of this Convention, who hold to the principles of the Republican Platform adopted July 13th, 1854 when the Republican party of the State was inaugurated, viz:

Freedom or Slavery the Chief political issue.

Freedom in all the United States Territories.

No More Slave States.

The Abolition of the Fugitive Slave Act.

Equality of Political Rights irrespective of birth, nationality or condition.

The support of such men only for office as are positively and fully committed to these principles, and whose personal character and conduct are a guarantee that they are reliable.

All who hold to these principles, and disclaim all fellowship with the Dunker Democratic and Know Nothing parties are invited to meet at Madison, for the purpose above mentioned to organize for the coming Presidential Campaign, and to transact such business as the best interest of the party may require. And all Republican editors, and all Republicans who do not wish to see the Republican party controlled by the Know Nothings, and disloyal, are requested to aid in circulating and promoting the objects of this call.

Let Mr. Atwood, of the Journal—who takes so much pains to make the public believe that the Committee are not Know Nothings—affirm if he can, that he never joined the order of Know Nothings, or Americans, and that he never made any pledges to them, or professions of sympathy with their principles. That will place the question in a tangible shape. And although his denials in regard to the Committee in general, in the face of public evidence, would seriously impeach the value of his declarations concerning himself, yet such statements as he chooses to make exculpate himself from the charge that he is either an inside or an outside member of the order, we will cheerfully publish. We make these statements because we want no more dodging and wriggling about the matter.

The Arabs whip their children for being caught in a theft. The same feeling seems to actuate a portion of the Republican press. They do not express any regret at the intrusion of the Know Nothings into the Republican party, and their attempts to control it. But they appear greatly offended because we have exposed this attempt, and pointed out the men who were active in it. Nobody would have known the fraud, say they, but for us; and so, instead of turning their batteries against the Know Nothings, they vent their indignation against us—Are not these facts significant? Do they not show whether we are talents? Let the Know Nothing party of this State disband its organization, and then its members can act with either party, according to their affinities. But so long as it is an organized political party, and the Republican party takes its official members as its officers and directors, it cannot avoid the responsibility and the odium of such a connection.

At the municipal election at Ottawa, Ill., on Monday last, the Nebraska ticket was defeated. Judge Leland (Anti Nebrascas) was elected Mayor by a decided majority.

The Committee would respectfully suggest that the several Assembly District Conventions for the appointment of delegates to the State Convention, be held at 9 o'clock P. M. on Saturday, the 24th day of May next.

We did not accuse Mr. Booth of playing the hypocrite, because he thought Mr. Chase would be the preferable candidate, but because we did not believe that a man who honestly opposed the dark-lantern demagogues would attempt to set aside a candidate solely to conciliate them.—Racine Advocate.

That is it, is it? The Advocate conceals from its readers the fact, that we named Seward as our second choice, and that the fact that he was specially obnoxious to Know Nothings was but one reason which we assigned why Chase was preferable to Seward as a candidate. The Advocate is doing a great work for the Republican cause. It recently charged another Republican editor with being a "varlet," and having "neither the moral stamina to be an honest man, nor the ability to be a knave," and advised him to "retire from the profession."

We can only say, as Mr. Sholes said to us, of Mr. Deasnore, that notwithstanding his unpopularity, his paper is conducted with more discretion and fairness than almost any paper in the State. And those who abuse him might well imitate his candor and fair treatment.

We venture another remark. Those who indulge in this kind of warfare, whatever their talk, have abandoned all hope of the success of the Republican party this fall, and are taking this opportunity to vent their personal spleen and wreak their old spites, and think this a good time for doing it. A few Republican presses protest against such a course. The Berlin Courier, for instance, says:—"Some of the professing Republican editors are just now attacking Mr. Booth in a cowardly manner, evidently because he is supposed to be somewhat unpopular, and, having a personal spleen, it is safe to vent it."

But a considerable portion of the Republican press take no active part in the controversy.

All these will eventually regulate themselves. The greatest difficulty, after all, lies back of the press. The people are not aroused to the overshadowing evil of Slavery. They are not yet resolved to put down the Slave Power. And they are looking around after a Compromise man, to put him in the Presidential chair. And half the Republican press are ready to take a man without incidents, and without reliable pledges, as their leader for the Presidential campaign.

The Madison Journal declares, notwithstanding the disclaimer of Messrs. Frisby and Domke, that—

"We account Mr. Booth the prime mover of this Mass Convention call, because his whole-some assertions, made without knowledge, and as we believe without foundation in truth, have given rise to these apprehensions which induced the editor of the Atlas to favor their call."

It is true we have not had the advantage of membership in the order, or an admission into the ante-room of a Know Nothing Lodge, one of the editors of the Journal is reported to have had. But when the Journal undertakes to ignore, or deny the fact, that members of the Committee are Know Nothings—three of whom at least are officers of the order—it only shows its impudence. Mr. White was instructed to correspond with all the members of the State Central Committee, and ascertain how many of them were Know Nothings. If they did not answer him that they were not Know Nothings, it is fair to presume that they were members of the order. Mr. White put forth a defense of the committee. Did he pretend, or intimate, that a majority of the State Central Committee were not Know Nothings? By no means. Or that a majority of those who were present when the call was decided upon were not Know Nothings? Not at all. He only claimed that one half of the four members, himself and Judge Potter, were Anti Know Nothings. If he could have shown that a majority of the Committee, or of the four who acted with him were not Know Nothings, in making a defense for them, would he not have done it?

Let Mr. White declare who of that Committee assured him, over their own signature, that they were not Know Nothings. He owes it to the party to make the facts public. For these Committee men may be candidates for re-election, and if the party is kept in ignorance of their true position, how is it to act understandingly in choosing a new Committee?

Let Mr. Atwood, of the Journal—who takes so much pains to make the public believe that the Committee are not Know Nothings—affirm if he can, that he never joined the order of Know Nothings, or Americans, and that he never made any pledges to them, or professions of sympathy with their principles. That will place the question in a tangible shape. And although his denials in regard to the Committee in general, in the face of public evidence, would seriously impeach the value of his declarations concerning himself, yet such statements as he chooses to make exculpate himself from the charge that he is either an inside or an outside member of the order, we will cheerfully publish. WHY NOT?

THE N. Y. Tribune, of the 3d inst., in an article on the Issues of the next Presidential Campaign, asks, "why not make the immediate admission of Kansas as a Free State, the sole question before the public, until such admission is accomplished?" Are not her and our adversaries plainly gratified whenever they can entice us into discussions of the Fugitive Slave Act and all manner of abstractions respecting Slavery? Shall we be weaker for any other conflict after we shall have fought and won the battle of Kansas, adding her to the number of Free States? Can we better refute the singularity which makes us the associates and "worshippers" of negroes, than by fighting the battle of a Free State which, through no act or purpose of ours, is destined for the homes of white people only? Can we make any issue so fit or favorable as that which looks to the fate of Kansas alone?"

We answer, because such a platform cannot justify the radical anti Slavery men of the country to the support of your candidates. The Slave party will make the issue boldly in favor of the freest ingress of Slavery into all the Territories, and this issue must be promptly met.

A nomination on a mere Free State

Kansas Platform, which ignores the policy of Slavery Restriction, and does not assert the great principles of Constitutional Freedom, opposition to the Fugitive Slave Act, the admission of new Slave States, the right of the masters to transport their slaves through the Free States, and the usurpations of the Slave Power,
